PREFACE

The Psi Upsilon Club of Cleveland submits this record with hopes that it will be of value to the Fraternity, the Executive Council, the Chapters, the Diamond, and particularly to the members of the fraternity in Ohio,—and that it will prove to be an inspiration and a means for organizing Alumni Clubs in other cities in the state.

The Directory records the names, chapters, classes, degrees, undergraduate societies and scholastic and athletic honors, positions of honor and trust, authorship, club and association membership, and occupations of the members, with business and resident addresses of the living, and the dates of the death of the deceased, so far as it has been possible to learn them.

Information was obtained entirely through correspondence, from the members themselves, the chapters, the Diamond, and the Twelfth General Catalogue of the Fraternity. All addresses appearing hereinafter and not enclosed in parentheses are therefore official. An address enclosed in parenthesis is, generally, one to which letters have been sent, without bringing the desired response and without being returned by the Post Office Department. Accordingly these addresses are good for mailing purposes at least.

The asterisk (*) preceding an address indicates that it is to be used for correspondence. The double asterisk () follows the name of the deceased member. In every case in which the year of the deceased is known it is indicated to the right at the bottom. The dagger (†) following a name signifies that the brother is a member of the Psi Upsilon Club of Toledo. Discarded names or portions thereof are enclosed in brackets [ ]. Initial letters not followed by periods are names, not abbreviations. Initial letters followed by periods are abbreviations of names not ascertainable. Numerals (1), (2), (3), (4), after college honors and officers, denote freshman, sophomore, junior and senior years respectively. The name of the institution by which it has been conferred follows the date of the degree. The omission of such name indicates that the degree was conferred by the institution containing the chapter of the fraternity into which the member was initiated.

Attention is called to the list of "Former Residents in Ohio", which will enable the chapters and those desiring the information to bring their Rolls up to date. As far as it has been possible to become posted the enclosed list of Songs are among the most popular in the Song Book and may be of service at Psi U. gatherings.

The Directory is published with the approval of the Executive Council who have granted permission for use of material copyrighted in the Twelfth General Catalogue and the Song Book. The Editor takes this opportunity to thank all members of the Executive Council, the Diamond, and other members of the fraternity. In this connection many be mentioned particularly, R(obert) Bourke Corcoran, Omega '15, Emmett Hay Naylor, Zeta '09, Theodore Leland Waugh, Pi '98, Leo Weldon Wertheimer, Iota '99, Earle Linus Rich, Xi '07, Donald Hubert Wattley, Ieta '17, David James Robison, Delta Delta '14, and the Executive Committee of the Cleveland Club.

Conscious that the work is not perfect the Editor, however, believes it to be complete to a large degree. We hope that it will be of service, and that it will bind its members closer in the fraternal bonds.

A Avery Hallock.

SONGS

Air—"It's a Way We Have at Old Harvard"

In singing this well-known song it is customary to first sing, "This Jolly Convocation", by Rev. J. K. Lombard, Beta '54 (Page 206 of the 11th edition, 1908), and after the sixth stanza and its coda, to turn to the title-page of the book and sing that through by installments.

SONGS
OF THE
PSI UPSILON FRATERNITY

"The man that hath no music in himself
Is fit for treasons, stratagems, and spoils."
Shakespeare

"And when the sands of life are run
We'll sing to thee, Psi Upsilon."
Finch

Published by the
Executive Council of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity
New York, 1908

DEAR OLD SHRINE

Prof. C. S. Harrington, D. D., Xi, '52

Air—"Dearest Mae"

Come, brothers of Psi Upsilon, who trod its halls of yore,
Unbar the ivied gates of years, and tread these halls once more;
The buried jewels glitter still—the ling'ring voices call.
While we, with spirit gaze and grasp, at ancient altars fall.

Chorus

O dear old shrine, our hearts around thee twine;
We love thee yet, we'll ne'er forget, the days of Auld Lang Syne.

2

Come, brothers of this later time, of earlier worth the peers,
Who bear the honors of the past along the hurrying years;
Ye keep our temple walls still bright, ye weave the wreaths of bay,
Ye feed the hallowed vestal fires we gather round today.

3

Come, brothers of the then and now, one whom no time can part,
Linked by a chain whose diamond clasp gleams bright above each heart;
Come sing again the good old songs, the mystic bond still bless.
The diamond of Psi Upsilon shall never sparkle less

THE COLLEGE CHORUS

By W. H. Boughton, Lambda '58

Air—"Few Days"

1

Come, brothers, and a song we'll sing,
Psi U., Psi U.,
And make the lodge-room round us ring,
Psi Upsilon.
We've gathered in our hall tonight,
Psi U., Psi U.,
To leave it with the morning light,
Psi Upsilon.

Cho. There to sing and to speak thy praises,
Psi U., Psi U.,
To sing and to speak thy praises,
Psi Upsilon.

2

The bright-eyed maiden loves to hear,
Psi U., Psi U.,
The story of our brave career,
Psi Upsilon.
And looks upon the man as blest,
Psi U., Psi U.,
Who wears the diamond on his breast,
Psi Upsilon.

Cho. Then Hurrah! for Psi U. ladies,
Psi U., Psi U.,
Hurrah! for Psi U. ladies,
Psi Upsilon.

3

Now three times three for all our men,
Psi U., Psi U.,
And for the ladies, ten times ten,
Psi Upsilon.
Hurrah! hurrah! hurrah! hurrah!
Psi U., Psi U.,
Hurrah! hurrah! hurrah! hurrah!
Psi Upsilon.

Cho. And again we'll sing thy praises,
Psi U., Psi U.,
And again we'll sing thy praises,
Psi Upsilon.

(optional)

Now three times three for all our men,
Psi U., Psi U.,
And for the ladies, ten times ten,
Psi Upsilon.
And when the little ones come on,
Psi U., Psi U.,
We'll brand them all Psi Upsilon,
Psi Upsilon.

Cho. Then hurrah for Psi U. babies,
Psi U., Psi U.,
Hurrah! for Psi U. babies,
Psi Upsilon.

WELCOME, BROTHERS, OLD AND YOUNG

Charles Harry Arndt, Iota, 89

Air—"Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching."

1

Welcome, brothers, old and young,
Welcome, ev'ry loyal son,
All who wear the emblem of the chosen few;
Let us loud our voices ring,
And each brother gladly sing,
Sing the praises of our own, our lov'd Psi U.

Chorus

Psi Upsilon, Psi U. forever!
Symbols dearest to our heart!
Ever 'round thy holy shrine,
We'll the victor's myrtle twine,
And our love for thee, Psi U. shall ne'er depart.

2

In our various paths of life,
Cares and sorrow may be rife,
And the night be dark, and faithful friends be few;
When the storm is raging high,
And deep darkness rules the sky,
Then the beacon light shall burst from old Psi U.

3

When our race on earth is run,
And our labor here is done
And the jeweled crown of life is fairly won,
May our last faint falt'ring breath
Ere 'tis hushed in silent death,
Breathe the sweetest of all words,
Psi Upsilon.

PSI U JOYS

By Prof. L. O. Kuhns, Xi '85

Air—"The Pope"

1

O we're a band of jolly boys, jolly boys,
Our hearts are filled with Psi U joys, Psi U joys,
We sing and laugh the hours away,
No other life is half so gay
We sing and laugh the hours away,
No other life is half so gay.

2

The wine we drink is Psi U wine, Psi U wine,
It thrills us with a joy divine, joy divine;
The songs that we delight to sing,
With Psi U's praises ever ring.
The songs that we delight to sing,
With Psi U's praises ever ring.

3

No sadness e'er can enter here, enter here,
Joy smiles upon us all the year, all the year,
While hand in hand, like brothers true,
We faithful stand to old Psi U.
While hand in hand, like brothers true,
We faithful stand to old Psi U.

4

Let envious tongues wag as they may, as they may,
Psi Upsilon shall win the day, win the day,
We'll shout as years go rolling by,
"Psi Upsilon shall never die!"
We'll shout as years go rolling by,
"Psi Upsilon shall never die!"

BROTHERS, THE DAY IS ENDED

Air—"Suoni la Tromba"

1

Brothers, the day is ended,
  Lost in the surge of time,
Gently the hours have blended
  In that melody sublime.
Soft as a dream of beauty
  Fadeth the silver light,
Done with the joys of duty,
  Now for the joys of the night! Hurrah!
Sing till the star-bells, ringing,
  Chime in the golden sun!
Hail to thee, glory bringing,
  Starry crowned Psi Upsilon.

2

Heaved on the breast of beauty,
  Tossed on the manly heart,
Glitters the golden token,
  Twined hands that never part,
Vexed with a vain ambition,
  Poring the weary page,
Others may dream of greatness,
  Here's to a green old age! Hurrah!
"On to the field of glory!"
  Soon be the triumphs won!
Hallowed in song and story,
  Ever live Psi Upsilon.

AFTER THE BATTLE

Prof. C. S. Harrington, D. D., Xi, '51

Air—"All Together."

1

Bold and ready, strong and steady,
Daylight is done;
Gather 'neath the old fraternal banner,
Blazoned with Psi Upsilon
Diamond and Golden,
Gleams the badge our hearts above;
Joys, new and olden,
Kindle with the grasp of love.

2

From the rattle, from the battle,
Victory is won;
Now the restful peace of blest communion,
At thy shrine, Psi Upsilon.
Pure, warm and loyal,
Honor's soul and virtue's crown,
Each brother royal,
Fighteth for a king's renown

3

Bond fraternal, bond eternal,
Linking in one;
Holier union than chivalric circle,
All thy sons, Psi Upsilon.
Never, no never,
Fade the laurel of our band;
Shine on, forever,
Symbol of the heart and hand.

PSI U FRIENDSHIP

By Prof L. O. Kuhns, Xi '85

Air—"Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes"

1

'Tis spring that brings the richest gifts
The circling year affords;
The flower's bloom, the Zephyr's breath,
The blithe bird's sweet accords;
The brightest moments of the day
Attend the train of morn,
The sparkling dew, the blushing hues,
That eastern skies adorn.

2

And so life's richest, sweetest gifts,
Oh Youth, to thee are given;
Bright flowers bloom beneath thy feet,
Kind are the smiles of Heaven;
To thee belong all hopes and joys,
That fill the heart and brain;
Thine is the time when love can forge
True friendship's golden chain.

3

Oh, Brothers in Psi Upsilon!
While Youth still thrills your frame;
While face up-turned ye forward press
T'ward wealth and power and fame;
Remember, best of all life brings,
Is friendship strong and true;
Rememer, friends of all the best
Are found in old Psi U.

PSI UPSILON SMOKING SONG

Hon. F. M. Finch, Beta, '49

Air—"Southern Melody"

1

Floating away like the fountain's spray,
Or the snow-white plume of a maiden,
The smoke wreaths rise to the starlit skies
With blissful fragrance laden.

Chorus

Then smoke away, till a golden ray
Lights up the dawn of the morrow,
For a cheerful cigar, like a shield, will bar
The blows of care and sorrow.

2

The leaf burns bright, like the gems of light,
That flash in the braids of beauty;
It nerves each heart for the hero's part,
On the battle-plain of duty.

3

In the thoughtful gloom of his darkened room
Sits the child of song and story;
And his heart is light, for his pipe beams bright,
And his dreams are all of glory.

4

It warms the soul, like the blushing bowl,
With its rose-red burden streaming,
And drowns it in bliss, like the first warm kiss
From the lips with love-buds teeming.

SERENADE

By Rev. L W. Peck, D. D., Delta '45
Music by Karl P. Harrington, Xi '82

1

Swift as an arrow time has flown,
The stars retire before the sun;
But in her golden sphere alone,
Forever shines Psi Upsilon.

2

Still shining down the lapse of years,
In smiles of love, thro blissful tears,
She lives till time's last courses run,
The deathless, fair Psi Upsilon.

3

We clasp today the friendly hand,
We closer bind dear friendship's band;
And lay our sweetest off'rings down
Before thy shrine Psi Upsilon.

4

Let earth retire, and star, and sun!
The kingdoms of the heart are one;
And we shall meet, to glory known,
True brothers of Psi Upsilon.

PSI U LINEAGE

By Robert T. McCracken, Tau '04

Air—"The Leader of the German Band"

Fam'lies antedate the flood,
Boast the purple in their blood;
Some people want only fabulous wealth.
Others desire wit, beauty and health;
We have these and something more.
We have brothers by the score!
Firmly they stand an unbroken band,
Supporting us on ev'ry hand.

Chorus

Age, it is the rage,
  In lace and race and creed;
Tone, and tone alone,
  Will place you in the lead;
Fame, resounding fame,
  Spread abroad through all the land;
All, all are at your beck and call,
  If in Psi U's ranks you stand.

High above the world's great names,
We may have ancestral claims;
Where'er a man found good work to do,
There was a father for me and you;
Cromwell and Napoleon,
Frederick and Washington,
Charlemagne, Caesar, Alexander, too—
Father Adam was a good Psi U!

MARCHING SONG

Carl F. Price, Xi, '02

Air—"Up the Street"

Brothers, our voices loudly raise,
Joining in one glad song of praise,
Putting our hearts in ev'ry phrase,
Its echo resounds thru all our days;
As we go marching two by two,
Uphold we the honor of Psi U.,
Sing every man of our glorious clan,
And shout for the ———————— of Psi U.

Chorus

All hail Psi Upsilon; we'll sing Psi Upsilon;
The ———————— of Psi Upsilon, all hail, Psi U.,
Ever beloved Psi U.
When college days are past and gone,
And darker years are sweeping on,
Fond mem'ries of Psi Upsilon
We'll cherish our whole life through.
All hail Psi Upsilon; we sing Psi Upsilon,
The ———————— of Psi Upsilon, all hail, Psi U.,
Ever beloved Psi U.

PSI U. FELLOWSHIP

Capt John F. Critchlow, M. D., Tau, '94

Air—"I'se Gwine Back to Dixie"

1

Come, Brothers, fill your briers
With "Lone Jack" and "Virginia,"
Come gather 'round the fire,
Where care won't come to hinder;
The smoke wreaths soft ascending,
In loving fragrance blending,
As each man's heart is bending
To old Psi U.

We're all birds of a feather,
We're always found together
And naught can come to sever
Our hearts so true.
And after all is over,
We'll drink a little clover,
For every man's a lover
Of old Psi U.

2

Let's sing and tell a story,
A story rich and mellow;
'Twill be a tale of glory
Of some good Psi U. fellow;
He's a man whose heart is tender,
Who never knows surrender,
When standing as defender
Of old Psi U.

And when life's tide is turning,
And we are growing old,
We'll all look back with yearning
To the Garnet and the Gold;
To the clasped hands we rally,
Be we king or row a galley,
And then pass through the valley,
To the tune of old Psi U.

THE RHO OWL SONG

By Charles Floyd McClure, Rho '95

Air—"Colored Four Hundred"

1

There is a legend, quaint and Greek,
About an ancient owl,
Who dwelt in great exclusiveness,
A most respected fowl,
Beloved he of lion bold,
Who rampant rose one morn,
Awak'ning consternation
In the land where he was born.

Semi-Chorus

To whit; To whoo! !
O, ancient owl of fair Psi U.,
Thy jewel bright
The rampant lion wears tonight;
And true to thee
Will ever be,
Owl of old Psi U.

Chorus

O, lovely owl, conservative fowl,
In his joy and exultation
Doth the rampant lion howl—
Tu whit! to whoo! Psi U.; Psi U.!
O, tu whit! to whoo! Psi Upsilon, forever!

2

The ancient owl blinked both his eyes,
And marveled at the roar,
In loud protest a pack of curs
Was snarling at his door,
"An upstart lion comes this way,"
The envious jackals cried.
"Pray bar from out thy portals fair,
This traitor double eyed."
